YOUR CHINESE WILL GROW BY LEAPS & BOUNDS.

Looking to take your Chinese language skills to the next level? CET Beijing will help you get there, whether you're an absolute beginner, advanced learner, or even heritage student. Small classes with dedicated instructors and regular one-on-one classes mean you get the personal attention you need. But your language progress isn't limited to the classroom. A full language pledge, living with a local roommate, and activities and excursions that get you out into the city to practice mean you gain comfort and ease using Chinese where it really counts—in everyday life, with native speakers.

ACADEMICS

INTENSIVE CHINESE LANGUAGE

FALL/SPRING: 266 hours. 17 credits.

JANTERM: 92 hours. 5 credits.

- Small group lecture
- Small group drill and discussion
- One-on-one practice
- One-on-two drill
- Advanced students' curriculum includes electives in Chinese Newspaper Reading, Business Chinese, and Classical Chinese.

"One of the best aspects of CET Beijing is the opportunity to be paired up with a Chinese roommate. While students do learn a LOT in the classroom, it's only by being with a roommate that your Chinese reaches a level of authenticity that it might not be able to otherwise."

— Minnie Norgaisse, Brandeis University

CHOOSE JANTERM & JUMPSTART YOUR CHINESE

Janterm follows the same model as the fall/spring curriculum: you take a full load of intensive language classes, adhere to a full-time language pledge, and live with a Chinese roommate. Add Janterm to the end of a fall semester in China, start of a spring semester, or on its own as a way to boost your Chinese skills in just 5 short weeks.

LOCAL ROOMMATES

*Housing setup is dependent on local pandemic-related restrictions

- Your Chinese roommates help you maintain your language pledge as they teach you to navigate Beijing like a local. Explore the winding alleys of the hutongs and find hidden kebab stands, tea shops, and one-of-a-kind stores. Or spend a night at karaoke with a group of roommates and CET students. Try your best to sing the latest Chinese pop songs!
- You live in a dorm on our centrally-located campus. Take advantage of campus basketball courts, cafeterias, and the ping pong table in the dorm student lounge.

"The activities CET orchestrates for us are very helpful for acquiring Chinese vocabulary; for example, the painting class introduced Chinese I knew with some new and methodically introduced vocabulary."

— Owen Warmuth, University of North Carolina - Chapel Hill

"I went from knowing no Chinese at all to being able to hold a conversation with others in Chinese and navigate my daily life in a Chinese-speaking country. This program has provided me a strong foundation from which to continue building my Chinese-language skills, which is exactly what I wanted out of this experience."
