STUDY IN HISTORIC FLORENCE. YOUR DREAM SEMESTER STARTS NOW.

Florence, Italy is picture perfect for study abroad. Take inspiring courses and earn the credits you need. CET offers a long list of electives that allow you to fulfill major requirements or pursue a new interest or passion. Every class takes advantage of Florence's rich history and culture: see the art you typically only study in textbooks, talk with business leaders in fashion houses, or get a hands-on look at Tuscan cuisine. You also live in apartments in the center of historic Florence. Get to know your local barista, become a regular at the neighborhood trattoria, and immerse yourself in this centuries-old community.

ACADEMICS

"I love how so many of our classes go on visits around the city so that we can apply concepts we're learning. It's a great way to immerse yourself in the culture of Florence while also increasing your comprehension in your classes."

— Nicole Cox, Vanderbilt University

HOUSING

- 🏠 Apartment or homestay
- 📍 Off-campus housing
- 👥 Live with CET peers or a homestay
- 👤 2-8 people/apartment
- 🛏 1-3 people/homestay
- 👤 1-2 people/room
- 🏠 Fully equipped kitchen, living room, shared bathroom per 2-3 students, in-unit washer
- 📶 WiFi access, A/C, linens, basic furnishing, kitchenware

LIFE IN FLORENCE

- Share an apartment in the center of Florence with other CET students. The apartments are in historic buildings, so the layouts and amenities might be different than what you are used to in the US, but they provide a truly authentic Italian experience.
- Choose to live in a homestay with locals instead. Homestays are located throughout the city, give you a chance to practice your Italian, and provide an inside look into local culture.

"The most important outcome of my term abroad was learning to be more independent. It's amazing to think that by the end of the semester I can navigate a whole city, as well as many modes of transportation by myself, in a different language."
